LIABILITY

Use of camp accommodation and other facilities is at the campers own risk and the organizers do not accept responsibility for the loss of or damage to the property of campers and other persons accompanying them.

Campers will be responsible to the Greensteds International School, for cost of any damage to premises, equipment or other property caused by them. Every effort will be made by the organizers to ensure that accidents do not occur, however, they cannot take responsibility for injuries that might be incurred by any camper during their stay at the camp. Those who are particularly concerned are advised to take out adequate personal Insurance for the duration of the camp.

The smagam organizers have undertaken full public liability insurance.

RULES

If in the judgment of the coordinators, the participant's conduct violates the following rules and regulations, the participant may be dismissed without refund or referred to appropriate authorities.

- Participants may not possess, use, distribute or sell alcoholic beverages, tobacco products, drugs, while in attendance at camp.
- Participants found tampering with any fire equipment (i.e. fire extinguishers, fire alarms, smoke detectors, etc.) will be dismissed from camp immediately. If found to have tampered with any equipment, necessary costs of replacement/repair will be forwarded to whoever is concerned.
- Participants may not interfere with any security system or tamper with locks in the school premises.
- Lewd and offensive speech or actions that undermine camp are strictly prohibited.
- Under no circumstances are males to visit female rooms or vice-versa.
- Because of the potential danger to others and property, vandalism and pranks will not be permitted.
- Guests and visitors (parents and other immediate family members) must inform & check in with head sevadars of the camp. Day visitors are not allowed in the sleeping area.
- It is recommended participants do not bring cell phones. Participants may NOT use cell phones during camp activities. In emergencies, the camp coordinators can be used to contact parents/relatives.
- Participants who leave their residence building after lights out without permission will be promptly asked to leave.
- Non attendance of any of the timetabled events will constitute a breach of camp rules and disciplinary action will be sought if you are found in such a position.

Participants may not leave the camp grounds at any time
